

Strongman Bound - Personal Testimony

By: Mrs. Irene Williams

A lonely road. I felt so cold.
Seemed like the devil had stolen my soul.
It came at a time when I couldn't see that the devil had it in for me.
A faithful servant I'd try to be,
but all the hindrances were distracting me.
Overwhelmed by what I could see -
I couldn't see the beautiful woman God made me to be.
God please, please make me whole!
My life is so lonely and cold.
No love, no peace, no intimacy.
Strongman, strongman you thought you would always control me with your traps,
your schemes, your lies and secrecy.
Abuse, and accusation I endured.
I fell for all your trickery.
You made me feel bad about me.
I couldn't see myself as God sees me.
Strongman, strongman don't you see?
Christ died and arose just for me!
To give me His Power and Authority -
God told me who I could be!
I surrendered it all, and God held my hand.
He told me my purpose in His Plan!
He made me feel special, and I finally see the beautiful woman He made me!

Strongman, strongman don't you know?
You can't defeat the God-fearing woman
Christ made me to be!
Thank You, Dear God! Now I see - the life you gave me is not about me!
Today - I'm strong, and I stand tall.
God has graced me through it all!
Strongman, strongman, I know you see,
this woman of God will reach her destiny!
Strongman, strongman you're not tall.
I measure my life against Christ or nothing
at all!
Thank you, strongman for giving me a story.
For to God, for it...He gets all the glory!
Strongman, strongman now you see -
Jesus Christ, He favors me!
