

Shaded Tree

By: Mrs. Irene Williams

Lord, please hear my cry -
Wanna get to know You before I die.
Deliver me from everlasting pain -
Wanna feel Your cool breeze, hear Your rain.
Open up my eyes to see the Sovereign God You are to me.
A Savior was born so I could be free –
To deliver me from the shaded tree.
My life's a mess, I must confess.
Help me, Lord; I wanna be blessed.
Condemned in shame and restlessness,
I called on friends. They couldn't hear me.
Help from them wasn't meant to be.
I cried to Jesus. He answered me, because He has rent the veil for me.

Jesus came and set me free. No shackles, no chains to hold on to me -
To attach me to the shaded tree.
Darkness will no longer terrorize my soul,
For fast to Jesus I will hold.
Mine eyes now open, the light unfolds.
What a beautiful sight to behold!
I'll trust in Jesus. He will make me bold.
Thank God my life is out of the shaded tree!
The 'Son' I see now – He's the way for me!
He will lead me on past the shaded tree.
Onward to victory, to Eternity.
There with Jesus, I will be
