

The Illusion

By: Mrs. Irene Williams

Christians want to mix and mangle; with Satan's toys - they desire to tangle.
Don't go into the devil's den, because he won't tell you what lies within.
What lies within is total misery; death and destruction you can't see.
Satan wants to abort your destiny.
Play with his toys, and you'll get trapped.
Before you know it, you've already snapped.
Satan creates the perfect illusion. He brings about all kinds of confusion.
He tells you lies in disguise, and your life he will misguide.
In your life –give Satan no season, for with him you cannot reason.
Think you can stop playing when you get tired?
Satan's not having it. He will override.
Don't use the devil's tools. Children of God, don't be fools!
Take heed! Don't be deceived! Grace from Christ you have received!!!
Free will God gave you. Choose to obey.
Stay out of Satan's den, and free you'll stay.
Satan's den is a house of bondage, you see.
you go in, and you can't be free.
So, remain unspotted from the world, and with Satan's toys – don't dance and twirl.

An illusion from the beginning... you can't tell, because he'll make everything seem so swell.
Play with his toys and this for sure - things
for you won't end well.
Stay in the race! Contend for the faith!
Don't let Satan cause you shame and disgrace!
Children of God - don't go into the devil's den, because he won't tell you what lies within.
Tangle with his toys... and you won't win.
